

[GC DG EmC DG]

I still see your big brown eyes
And I can feel you by my side
When I close my eyes
When I close my eyes

[D-Am C-Em-D G-Am D-G-D]

I'll never make it out on the open road
Just lying awake all alone
Playing for pennies on this dirty street
Playing songs about you and me

[GC DG EmC DG]

I still see your big brown eyes
And I can feel you by my side
When I close my eyes
When I close my eyes

[D-Am C-Em-D G-Am D-G-D]

Your face still haunts my memory
Though I tried, I tried to be
A simpler man, a better man
Someone who can cry and will understand

[GC DG EmC DG]

I still see your big brown eyes
And I can feel you by my side
When I close my eyes
When I close my eyes

[D-Am C-Em-D G-Am D-G-D]

She's a victim of the games that I love to play
And I'm a victim of the love that she never gave (Well) maybe 21 is too young for love
(But) maybe it's me and I'm not the one

[GC DG EmC DG]

I still see your big brown eyes
And I can feel you by my side
When I close my eyes
When I close my eyes
