Keep On Dreamin', Sweet Dreamer
Quincy Flint

Capo II
Key C --> D

You say your eyes're wide open
You say she's all that you need
You're blind to all that she's taken
And given you nothing but dreams

I love to see you smilin'
I love the songs that you sang
But one day I see you both cryin'
Cause love's such a tough game to play

Keep on dreamin' sweet dreamer
She's got you under her spell
You're wrapped around her sweet finger
It's plain from the stories you tell

You left your friends forsaken
You left your worries to rust
Said just "take a chance on a feelin'"
But, man, you're just feelin' lust

I don't mean to sound unkind
I don't mean to be a lost friend
You're the ragged, dusty old doormat
To the home she don't want you in

So, keep on dreamin' sweet dreamer
She's got you under her spell
You're wrapped around her sweet finger
It's plain from the stories you tell

I see your heart's been a hurtin'
I don't know, myself, how to love
For the ways of the world and bad women
I do know we're never enough

I'm here to talk when you've fallen
I'm here to cry when it's done
So, keep on lovin' that woman
And someday, she'll be the one

So, keep on dreamin' sweet dreamer
She's got you under her spell
You're wrapped around her sweet finger
It's plain from the stories you tell

Yes, keep on dreamin' sweet dreamer
She's got you under her spell
You're wrapped around her sweet finger
You know that I just wish you well
