

You say that your eyes're wide open
You say she's all that you need
I'm begging and pleading, quit hoping
This girl that you love is a dream

CC GG FF GC

I'm here to talk when you've fallen
I'm here to cry when it's done
Keep on lovin' that woman
And someday, you'll find the one

Keep on dreamin' sweet dreamer
She's got you under her spell
You're wrapped around her sweet finger
It's clear from the stories you tell

I don't mean to sound unkind
I'd just like to be a good friend
But you're nothing more than the doormat
In the home she don't want you in

I see that your heart's been a hurtin'
I don't know, myself, how to love
For the ways of the world and bad women
I do know we're never enough

So, keep on dreamin' sweet dreamer
She's got you under her spell
You're wrapped around her sweet finger
It's clear from the stories you tell

Yes, keep on dreamin' sweet dreamer
She's got you under her spell
You're wrapped around her sweet finger
But, you know, I just wish you well
