

My Lady Below
Quincy Flint

Here lies the body | of my dearly beloved
She stopped in her footsteps | she lays in the grave
She sits in her casket | and sleeps in the stone
And I on my knees | mourn my lady below

In the morning we get out | we ride and we ride
Til we run that train ragged | then (we) stop for the night
When the sun falls below | the moon's on the rise
Swore it'd be our last | til the end of our lives

But the end came quick | when word got out
That Bonnie and I | were in Shreveport that night
So you grabbed a bottle | and I grabbed my knife
The people they rose | they were looking to fight

You swung to the left | and I veered to my right
He reached for his 5 iron | and squeezed it tight
The bullet was quick | as a shot rang out
You fell to the floor | and I fell by your side

But the fight wasn't over | though I knew we'd been bested
So I leaped to my feet | I turned my heels and I | fled
With a laugh and a holler | he said Johnny don't bother
With two rounds in the air it was | clear they were better that | day

Here lies the body | of my dearly beloved
She stopped in her footsteps | now she lays in the grave
She sits in her casket | and sleeps in the stone
And I on my knees | mourn my lady | my lady below
