

You say your eyes're wide open
You say she's all that you need
But I'm begging and pleading, quit hoping
This girl that you love is a dream

CC GG FF GC

And I'm here to talk when you need to
I'm here to cry when it's done
So, keep on lovin' this woman
But, one day, you'll find the one

So, keep on dreamin' sweet dreamer
She's got you under her spell
And you're wrapped around her sweet finger
It's clear from the stories you tell

I don't mean to sound unkind
I'd just like to be a good friend
But you're nothing more than her doormat
In the home she don't want you in

I see that your heart's been a hurtin'
I don't know, myself, how to love
For the ways of the world and bad women
Man, I do know we're never enough

So, keep on dreamin' sweet dreamer
She's got you under her spell
And you're wrapped around her sweet finger
It's clear from the stories you tell

So, keep on dreamin' sweet dreamer
You know, I just wish you well
