It's so long to Gainesville, I'm heading on to Nashville
Thinking on that woman all the while
I left all my friends behind, I got nothing at my side
'Cept a pair of boots and my beat-up old guitar

I ain't the man that I used to be, you're not the girl that I came to need
I guess we're both just lying cheating dogs

I rambled on up to New York, but they closed down all the Woolworth's
And the crowds downtown are too big anyhow
I'm fine down in the south, since they kicked my baby out
Now home ain't just another place to sleep

I guess we're both just lying cheating dogs

My mother told me son, don't go chase that kingdom come
Or this old world will pass you right on by
Sit back enjoy the ride, don't go asking the reason why
That little girl won't take you for a wife
