Mockingbird, mockingbird, sing a song for me
Mockingbird, mockingbird, sing a song for me
Mockingbird, fly so free, o'er the hills and through the trees
Oh mockingbird, please, sing a song for me
Sing for me, Sing for me

Mockingbird, mockingbird, sing a song for me
Mockingbird, mockingbird, sing a song for me
Mockingbird, spread your wings, sing a song before you leave
Oh mockingbird, please, sing a song for me
Sing for me, Sing for me

     These winter winds in Washington are colder now than when she went Down south between the cypress knees, the spanish moss, and coastal beach
     She sings, for me

     She'll swim on down the Suwannee and sit upon the sweet gum trees
     Sail on through to Green Cove Spring and hopefully she'll learn to sing
     A song, for me
     A song, for me

Mockingbird, mockingbird, sing a song for me
Mockingbird, mockingbird, sing a song for me
Mockingbird don't go so long, just long enough to learn a song
So, mockingbird, please, sing a song for me
Sing for me, Sing for me
Sing for me, Sing for me [DDAA | GGAA]
